HOW THIS BOOK CAME ABOUT

In 2015, Daniel was teaching this new technique at a weekend course in Canada. Fascinated by his knowledge and my own results from sessions, I attended several more trainings.

The content was not always easy to understand. It was unlike anything I had studied in prior courses but the sessions, the courses and using the technique myself on others, convinced me to share more about The F.I.X. Code with those who were eager to know.

Well qualified in several healing modalities but still dissatisfied with the results he achieved with clients, Daniel created this new technique.

That was 25 years ago. Thousands of lives have since changed because of him. His belief about emotions is cutting edge. It definitely challenges the norms of ‘mind therapies’.

The results are nothing short of amazing and can leave one speechless at the success and simplicity of it. I can personally attest to its effectiveness and how my life has changed.

DANIEL ASKS:

What would you do if you had access to a technique that could eliminate anxiety, guilt, anger or fears from your life and allow you to live in emotional freedom?

Would you research it thoroughly before trying it, trust your friend who said it worked or dismiss it as another new age sales pitch?

My name is Daniel Flear. I am the Founder of Ancient Gene Technologies and the Creator of the F.I.X. Code Technique. I have witnessed all those reactions when I introduce people to this process.

The FIX Code is a technique that I developed by creating a metaphorical device that communicates with your unconscious mind. We are then able to disconnect negative emotions from the unconscious mind and physical body.

That is a mouthful... I know. This book will give you insight into how I figured this out and how I can help you with anxiety/ depression blocks/ feeling stuck/fears or worries when you are ready.

This technique works with all horrible feelings and we can ‘disconnect’ them successfully every time.

My clients have called me The Anxiety Whisperer. This doesn’t compute with how I see myself, but it is fun and seems to have stuck. Admittedly, much of my work has been around anxiety.

To my Dad, I was jokingly ‘The Kid from the future’.

This is the story of who I am and how I discovered amazing new information about emotions and anxiety.

WHAT IS THE F.I.X. CODE?

This technique is simple yet very profound. It can be used to help you feel better and remove those blocks and fears—the ones that prevent you from achieving your dreams and the life you desire.

You will read about cutting edge new concepts. Please take a leap of faith and join me in learning about the new paradigm I call the ‘Grand Illusion’.

We will take a brief look at my 25-year journey of creating this technique that could change your life forever.

- It’s a paradigm. Once you see it, you cannot ‘unsee’ it.
- It’s simple yet profound
- It’s a NEW theory on how we understand negative emotions and anxiety
- This technique proves the current thinking about emotions is outdated
- This new proven theory can change everything
- It challenges long established beliefs

First, a bit about what The F.I.X. Code is NOT so we can get that out of the way. I am constantly asked questions about this. Here are some concepts.

The technique is NEW in all its facets.

- It is not talk therapy.
- No content is required which means I don’t need to know your story— who –why or when.
- It is not traditional therapy.

- There is NO touch involved. This allows us to communicate using apps like Skype.
- This is not energy work.
- This does not involve your chakras.
- It is not hypnosis.
- It is not NLP.
- It is not tapping or Reiki.
- It is not a mainstream therapy.
- It is not a scam, snake oil or fly by night business.

So, with all of that said...What IS it?

- It is a NEW cutting edge technique
- It has successfully helped thousands in the past 25 years.
- It disconnects negative emotions and anxiety from the unconscious mind and physical body
- It uses a metaphorical device that I have created for your unconscious mind.
- The metaphorical device does the work required to disconnect those horrible feelings.
- We speak figuratively, calling the emotions parasites.
- Feelings from negative emotions are labeled as ‘codes’.
- I ask one simple question which my clients call the MAGIC question and the ‘Code’ reveals itself every time.
- The ‘Code’ is what we disconnect.
- The term ‘extraction’ identifies the process of removing the ‘code’.
- It’s easy and non-invasive.
- It is result driven.

Before you finish reading, I will explain how this came to be and how I went about creating the device. But first, I have to ask—

ARE YOU SUFFERING...

from depression / anxiety/ fears/ blocks /worry?

You are about to read about a new way to get help.

If you feel hurt or sad or guilt or angry or any horrible emotions, read on.

If you feel fear of being hurt or fear of death or any fear related to business or personal life, please keep reading.

What I am explaining can help you decide if the F.I.X Code is a technique you wish to experience.

HOW DO I PREPARE FOR A SESSION?

You need to be in an environment where you can relax in without interruption. There is nothing to prepare for the session.

Your setting must be distraction free.

Once the emotion (code) that we extract is gone, it does not come back. Other codes may show up.

The cool part is whatever has been worked on is gone. Healing actually occurs.

You move on from that horrible event or forget about it. You have the memory of the event but not the intensity of that negative emotion. You no longer feel sad or hurt or betrayed.

This technique is quick and result driven.

You may think it sounds too good to be true...I get that. I have heard all the rebutting arguments many times.

Any time an existing system is challenged, there are critics, skeptics and doubters lined up to refute the new ideas because people are reluctant to change for many reasons.

Hundreds and hundreds of clients have told me The F.I.X. Code works. I have to believe them.

Based on my own extractions using the technique, I can also attest to its validity and the results. That is another story.

WHO IS DANIEL?

My parents always knew my path wasn't going to be easy and gave me what I needed to figure things out, including a very long leash and room to do things "my way".

The teachers provided more evidence. They were frustrated with me. I would show up only for tests and exams and yet, managed to pass most.

I was my guidance counselor's worst nightmare—Grade 13 Physics and Grade 9 English in the same semester.

I challenged authority. I enjoyed a good argument. I never fit in. I saw the world differently than my peers and I didn't understand why they couldn't see what I saw. Over time, I just shut up.

Despite my non-conforming ways, I loved learning. I wanted to be an engineer or get into robotics. But the field was only starting to develop and the concepts that I wanted to show the world were too futuristic.

At this point, destiny intervened and changed the direction of my life. I was blissfully unaware that many more interventions were in my future.

A serious car accident left me with mild brain injury and temporary blindness. Post-secondary education was out of the question.

During my recovery, I received several gifts, the first one, a book, “Silva Mind Control” which I mastered in order to successfully heal my eyes.

This began my journey of seeing the world from a different space of healing and mind control, not from a robotics or engineering perspective.

I focused on the power of the mind and what is happening in our physical bodies. I was able to easily ‘see’ inside my body to heal and change the ‘program ‘ that was running in the area of the ‘weakness’, eliminating that problem.

I believed everyone knew how to do this so didn’t think much about it.

Destiny intervention number 2 was another gift-a ticket to a Tony Robbins seminar.

There were about 70 of us in the room. You likely know who Tony Robbins is so you’ll know by the attendance that this was early in his career.

This was one of those moments where a conversation changes the direction of your life. Over the weekend I spoke with him many times. Tony Robbins shook my hand and suggested I look into NLP. I am forever grateful to him.

I signed up for every course available. In Hawaii, I spent one weekend of a training with Richard Bandler and loved this.

How all this would impact my life was a mystery. I was not a 'therapist'. I owned video stores until they became a thing of the past.

I practiced my NLP, studied hypnotherapy and practiced on family and friends but I couldn't get traction on actually having that kind of business.

Apparently, there was still more for me to figure out.

I took a securities course. The stock market crash ended that career. Over the next while, I had several jobs to make ends meet and finally, life seemed to be back on track.

DESTINY INTERVENES AGAIN

Life can deal a seemingly cruel hand at times.

With no clear solution to some personal problems, I crumpled under a sequence of heart breaking events.

This time the hurt was too big. Shattered and broken, I retreated. The failure, the hurt, the sadness, the anger and endless loop of negative self-talk ran my mind and physical body. I was traumatized, heading into a dark place.

Destiny intervened yet again.

Now remember, I don't do anything the normal way. Well, this next part is so far from normal that it sounds bizarre, I know.

Finally emerging from my room one day, quite depressed, I was stopped by very thick dense air that felt like I had walked into Jell-O.

A blue Stargate looking ring began circling above my head then lowered to scan me. I had no thoughts—it was just happening. I didn't have any fight in me so I let it happen maybe because I was such a fan of the Stargate series.

Looking back I don't think I could have changed that moment, nor would I have wanted to. That event changed my life. It took a while to make sense of that day. The cosmos kicked my butt and put me on my path.

Now if you think that's the cool part... it isn't. The cool part is what I noticed some time after that.

- No negative emotions or fears were running me.
- I was totally present and my mind was quiet.
- All chatter and crazy thoughts were gone.
- I was afraid of nothing
- I could think clearly.
- That episode of the Blue Light was significant.
- I wanted to know how to wipe out all my fears and negative emotions.
- I started to ask questions and felt strangely guided to view events from different angles and perceptions to go into expanded thinking.
- I was free to be different and challenge 'traditional' in ways I had not done before.
- If my emotions could be removed like that, then it followed that emotions and fears are separate from me.
- Had I lost a 'piece of myself' I would have known. But I hadn't.

- The horrible feelings and fears were gone. All the memories attached to the horrible event were gone.
- It felt like the event had happened to someone else. The punch was gone. I could remember but I did not feel bad.
- If an electrical blue beam can remove my emotions then emotions are NOT us.
- I was heading down a rabbit hole, unable to emerge until I saw what I was supposed to see.

WHY EMOTIONS ARE NOT US

I believe negative emotions are affected by something I call a parasite that lives in a space we can't see and they vibrate at a rate that we can't see, but we can feel them.

If that's true, what are they? Why and how do they cause so much havoc in our minds and bodies and chaos in our lives?

I began to observe what seemed like an outside trigger that caused a memory to come up.

For the sake of an explanation, let's equate this to how a parasite would move a memory from the unconscious mind to the thinking brain. Once it was up in the thinking brain the person would change moods or state and try to change the memory in order to feel better.

Language and posture would change. Sometimes there would be a physical reaction—they'd start to sweat, pace, become agitated or frightened.

Yes. I could see all of this like a current moving in the person. The only way to describe it was like a parasite.

To say this was fascinating, is an understatement. But I couldn't start telling people that negative emotions are like parasites that eat the movement of memories. That was crazy. Even crazier is that is exactly why it's taken me so long to say anything.

It does sound crazy and it is the truth. The technique proves this every time.

The 'blue light' event happened 12 years ago and it has taken me until recently to put this to paper. Now, it's time and I am being strictly guided to start talking.

DANIEL STARTS TALKING

Although I help people everyday in my private practice, I have been quiet about this. Again, I have been guided as to how and when people would be ready to accept this new paradigm as truth.

So I have to begin talking, teaching and helping as much as I can because I cannot bear to only watch anymore. It is time for the truth to be out there.

For the next 45 days after the blue light experience, I lost a pound a day. It just fell off. I had been over 200 pounds my whole adult life and constantly tried to lose weight. I know what I'm talking about when I say this was odd. 45 pounds was a lot to lose in 6 weeks.

The other odd thing about this was that no one noticed, not one person commented. The third odd thing is that without paying attention to it, my weight has remained constant.

I had begun having visions that I had never had before. I saw myself teaching to large crowds, developing a technique that could help people from all over the world feel better and making a contribution in the field of mental health and healing.

The visions were detailed and affirming but I had no idea how I was ever going to be that person.

While these observations were happening, my body was becoming 'in harmony'. My system was morphing into its 'perfect health and well being'. I was getting stronger and physically fit. For the first time in my life, I had excess energy and had lost weight.

I realized that all my training and acquired knowledge had led me to this point. All the books, seminars and great love of learning were helping me along the way.

At this point, I do need to give thanks to all the writers of my favorite Sci-Fi shows. They spoke my language and their concepts were fascinating.

Some of these shows allowed me to expand my thinking, enabling me to create the metaphorical device to disconnect these horrible feelings and fears. I have to give credit where it is due. Thank you to all my traditional and non-traditional teachers.

Over a period of time as I adjusted to my new space, I began to understand what had taken place. I saw emotions in people as weird electrical currents, like a separate entity.

The current would shift and move, taxing the physical body in different areas. I could see the current moving from the unconscious space to the thinking brain. I could see the person change state.

Once I, myself, took the leap and understood with all my being, that emotions are being affected by something separate from us which is magnetic in nature and vibrates in a space we can't see, I knew my destiny lay ahead.

I had to decode what the blue light did to me so I could create the same experience for YOU —without a blue light.

I did.

CONCLUSION

What I have figured out, I am now calling The F.I.X. Code Technique. This stands for *F*lear *I*ntuitive *e*Xtraction.

Emotional responses are not US and my technique can prove this every time.

If you accept this new paradigm, it will change your world. It will change how you think and how you feel about everything. There is no need for fears or horrible feelings, any more defeating chatter in your head, no more blocks or feeling stuck.

We have been searching for Presence, which I define as the lack of future or past memories coming up for no reason.

This technique removes all those blocks.

The F.I.X. Code Technique allows you to achieve Presence.

FINALE

Daniel has proven that emotions are not us and that we have not generated these negative emotions ourselves.

With his proprietary technique, he is able to pull our negative emotions from our unconscious minds, thus freeing us from all manner of anxieties, fears and emotions that keep us believing, often incorrectly, that we know why we react in the way we do.

He treats these negative emotions, feelings and fears as parasites similar to having a sickness as a reaction to emotional distress (hurt, anger, sad, fear of being judged etc.)

Daniel has years of proof that this works from thousands of clients. Practitioners trained in this technique are also able to eliminate them.

It is NOT your fault that you feel sad or hurt. Your emotions are being triggered by outside influences.
